

Jorge A Bermudez

President and Chief Executive Officer, Byebrook Group

Jorge Bermudez is the president and CEO of the Byebrook Group, a small firm dedicated to research and advisory work in the financial services industry. Mr. Bermudez is the retired chief risk officer of Citibank/Citigroup.

Mr. Bermudez began his career with Citibank in 1975 and held various positions, including CEO e-Business, developing Citibank's Corporate Banking Internet strategy and platform; CEO Citigroup Latin America; Senior Advisor International; CEO Citigroup's Commercial Business Group North America and Citibank Texas, a position he held until becoming the chief risk officer in November 2007.

Mr. Bermudez currently serves as a director/trustee on the following boards: Moody's Corporation; The Federal Reserve Bank 11th District (Dallas); Texas A&M Foundation; Community Foundation of the Brazos Valley; Texas A&M University Smart Grid Center (chair). He has also served on the following boards: Electric Reliability Council of Texas; American Institute of Architects; The Federal Reserve Bank Houston; Citibank, NA, and Citicorp USA; Council of the Americas; Mastercard International LAC; Siembra Group; Asociacion de Bancos Argentinos; FEMSA Group. He was chairman of the New York Clearing House Steering Committee

Mr. Bermudez serves Texas A&M University on the International Advisory Board; Development Council College of Agriculture; Mays Business School Dean's Advisory Board; Past chair of board of the Association of Former Students.

He is a recipient of the Distinguished Alumnus Award (2017); the Outstanding International Alumnus Award (2016); the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Outstanding Alumnus Award (2013); the Tyrus R. Timm Honor Registry (2005).

Mr. Bermudez holds graduate and undergraduate degrees from Texas A&M University.